Mr. J. E. McEntee has accepted a position as master mechanic on the Texas & St. Louis railroad. Mr. McEntee is a number one workman, and fully equal to the duties of his new situation. His wife and daughter left here last week to join him at Jonesboro, Ark.

H. B. Myers and Oscar Caldwell, of Decatur, George Hodges of Almena, Joshua Bishop, Joseph Hyles, and R. H. Chapman, of Paw Paw, have all had their pension claims allowed within the past few days. Galloway was their attorney. He will attend to his pension business hereafter, at his farm 3 1/2 miles south-west of this place, as his health will not permit him to keep an office in town at present.

Prof. Russell has been engaged as principal of the Paw Paw schools at a salary of $1,200 per annum. In common with our citizens, we regret to lose the services of Mr. Russell. Our schools were never in more prosperous condition than during his management. We commend him to the people of Paw Paw as an earnest, efficient worker in his profession, and a genial cultured gentleman.—Midford Review.

In the North American Review for July, President Julius H. Seelye writes of "Dynamite as a factor in civilization." In "The Last Days of the Rebellion" Lieutenant-General P. H. Sheridan recounts the operations of the cavalry divisions under his command during the week preceding the surrender of Lee. William S. Holman, M. C., makes a striking exhibit of "The increase of public expenditures." "Democracy and Moral Progress" by O. B. Frothingham, is a philosophic forecast of the probable outcome of "government by the people themselves." Z. R. Brockway, superintendent of the Reformatory at Elmira, N. Y., points out some "Needed Reforms in Prison Management." Thomas Sergeant Perry writes of "Science and the Imagination." Geo. E. Waring Jr., of "Sanitary Drainage." Elbridge T. Gerry of "Cruelty to Children;" and finally there is a Symposium on "Church Attendance." Published at 30 Lafayette Place, New York.

Circuit Court.
Our Circuit Court was in session a couple of days this week. Joseph Cooper was arraigned for being too much married, but owing to a defective return from the justice, he was discharged. New papers were made out and he was re-arrested. Becoming a little disheartened he plead guilty and was sent over the road for eighteen months.

The case of the West Michigan Savings Bank vs. H. G. M. Howard and E. S. Harvey, replevin, was decided in favor of the bank. The certiorari case of C. W. Young et al. vs. J. W. Hall, was argued and reversed.

Last week, Mrs. John McCollum left this place and was met at Niles by Mrs. George McCollum. They together continued their journey to Stillwell, Minnesota, to join their husbands.

Waverly.
Married, in Waverly, at the residence of the bride's mother, Miss Hettie Colburn and Mr. Ed. Collins.

The funeral of Mrs. Keith, mother of Mrs. T. J. Chaffee, took place at Maple Grove school house. Mrs. K. was a very estimable old lady, and had been ailing for a long period of time.

On Sunday night last the residents of Waverly experienced one of the heaviest storms ever known in this region. The streams were overflowed, bridges carried away, and roads impassable.

A reception was given William Nixon at the residence of his mother, Mrs. A. Nixon, on his arrival with his bride from Bellaire, Antrim county, on the afternoon and evening of Wednesday, June 13th. After refreshments were served, the Glendale band appeared upon the scene, and serenaded the happy pair, after which the friends indulged in a social hop.

Through the skillful management of Mrs. L. W. Simmons and family, on Monday, June 11th, a goodly number of their neighbors assembled at their home, it being the 57th anniversary of his birthday, and gave him a perfect surprise. He was remembered with some nice gifts, and last but not least, the assembled guests were invited to partake of as nice a repast as is often enjoyed. A good feeling prevailed, and all went away feeling they had been highly entertained.

Bangor.
All hail! For an old-fashioned fourth in Bangor, accompanied by a rain storm, if possible.
Mr. Jennings, foreman of the Advance office and Miss Eliza Hammond, were married Thursday evening, June 14th, by Elder Reese, at the home of the bride's parents.

The Ladies' Library Association have added a number of new books to the library.
Children's day was observed at the Congregational church Sunday. The little ones did very nicely, and the church was beautifully trimmed.

The heavy rain-fall Monday night did a great deal of damage here. All the cellars on Main street were flooded, Bagley was obliged to remove his stock from his market, several places washed out on railroad switches, Mr. Milliken's house was in danger of falling, the underpinning being washed away and cellar caving in.

Kendall.
O. L. Mosier is ill with lumbago.
Mr. and Mrs. Arms have gone to Battle Creek.
Sam Frank is slowly recovering from his recent illness.
Kendall will celebrate the glorious Fourth. Dr. C. W. Huff is President of the day. The exercises will consist of a picnic, speaking, singing and a variety of interesting contests and games.

A terrific storm of wind and rain visited this place last Sunday night. Cellars were inundated and crops washed out. Section men report the sand eight feet deep on the railroad at Hopkins, where the wash-down occurred which delayed trains. A large number of pressed brick, ready for burning, were destroyed at the yard.

Prospect Lake.
Dennis Cooper has bought a new two-horse cultivator.
The youngest child of James Lowry, died last week of measles.
Guess summer has come, the sheep begin to take off their coats.
Died, June 13th, Miss Susie Wilson, aged 22 years, of consumption. Miss Wilson was a grand-daughter of Mrs. H. Parker.
If a young chap has to come quite a distance to see his girl, and it rains so that he cannot go home, he can stay all night and take her to school the next day, so he can.

We hear that Walter Adams has the contract for carrying the mail the coming four years, twice a week, from Prospect Lake to Decatur and back. Consideration, $85 per annum, which is $15 more than the present contractor gets.

Arlington.
E. P. Smith is building a new house.
Mrs. Wheeler has a new road fence.
Sam. Smith lost a valuable colt a few days since.
S. S. Fuller and J. Blakeledge are each building new barns.
Mrs. Moacham is here visiting her daughters Ida and Jennie.
Arlington people think no one can play for a dance quite as well as Milt Sherrard and Clint Hungerford.
